

Directory of History of Medicine Collections

Organization Name: Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library University of Toronto

Organization Type: Library

Address: 120 St. George Street

City: Toronto

State/Province: Ontario

Zip/Postal Code: M6N 5C7

Country: Canada

Telephone Number: 416-978-5285

Fax Number: (416) 978-1667

Web Site: <https://fisher.library.utoronto.ca/>

Online Catalog: <https://search.library.utoronto.ca/index>

Other: <http://link.library.utoronto.ca/anatomia/application/index.cfm>

Abstract: The Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library houses approximately 15,000 items in the history of medicine. These materials are for use in the library only. Limited photocopying is permitted. The library's particular strengths are in the history of anatomy, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, dentistry, and psychoanalysis.

Holdings: The Library holds approximately 15,000 items. About 10 incunables, many 16th century volumes, but no precise figures are available. Some manuscript material, including a number of Florence Nightingale's letters. Small collection of medical caricature prints.

Collection Subject Strengths: History of Anatomy; History of Gynecology and Obstetrics; History of Medicine; History of Nursing; History of Pediatrics; History of Psychiatry; History of Psychology; History of Stomatology

Other Collection Subject Strengths:

Institution Contact: Philip Oldfield

Institution Title: Librarian

Email Address: philip.oldfield@utoronto.ca

Contact Email Address: philip.oldfield@utoronto.ca

Contact Telephone Number: (416) 946-3177

Contact Name: Philip Oldfield