Abstract: The University Institute for the History of Medicine and Public Health (IUHMSP) was founded in 1989. This Library holds about 50,000 volumes, the oldest dating from the 16th century. Areas of interest include history of psychiatry and neurosciences; ancient medicine; history of hospitals; history of medicine in Switzerland; anthropology and philosophy of medicine; and ethics (Fondation Chassot et Guex for Medical Ethics). The Library also has a collection of more than 100 periodicals and a collection of offprints and biographical files. The material has been cataloged in a current automated catalog RERO, comprising 5'500 millions bibliographic records from more than 215 research and reference libraries of French speaking cantons of Switzerland. Rero is accessible via the Internet at <http://www.rero.ch>. The Library, that is one of the Libraries of Centre Hospitalier Universitaire Vaudois (CHUV), is open to the public and easily accessible for the scholar and practitioner. Copies of photographs can be made and books may be photocopied, depending on the condition of the material. Interlibrary loan (against IFLA Vaucher) and loan for special exhibitions are possible but only for books in good condition.
