Abstract: Archives and Special Collections collects papers and records relating to the history of Alaska and the northwest Pacific area. The Archives acquires, preserves, and makes available to students, faculty, and the public unpublished manuscripts, photographs, and information stored in non-print media. In addition to supporting the several educational and research missions of the University, it performs a special service mission as community conservator of the papers and records of persons, families, organizations, associations, and businesses.

Holdings: Photographs, manuscripts, sound recordings, moving image films, rare maps, rare books, ephemera, and other archival material. To access a research guide to our collections, please go to the following URL: <http://libguides.consortiumlibrary.org/ASHealthcollections>.
